

CHEVRON VICE CHAIRMAN TO ADDRESS SCDI ANNUAL LECTURE

30 October 2008

Peter Robertson
Vice Chairman of the Board of Chevron Corporation

Peter Robertson, Vice Chairman of the Board of Chevron Corporation, will be the keynote speaker at the Scottish Council for Development and Industry's Annual Lecture in January. Mr Robertson, who is a Scot, has recently agreed to join Scottish Enterprise's influential International Advisory Board.

The SCDI Annual Lecture is held every year in Aberdeen with an audience of around 250 senior representatives from the private, public and third sectors. This year's speaker was Paul Walsh, Chief Executive of Diageo.

SCDI North East Manager Ian Armstrong said:

"SCDI is delighted that in Peter Robertson we have another outstanding global business leader speaking at our flagship Annual Lecture. Energy issues are at the top of the agenda across SCDI's wide membership and Peter has great knowledge and expertise of the energy sector.

"He has also just agreed to advise the Scottish Government and Scottish Enterprise on how to promote sustainable economic growth and support to Scottish companies with significant international potential. It will particularly interesting to get his perspective on the global economic situation and the opportunities and challenges for Scotland."

The event will take place on the 13th January at the Marcliffe Hotel. Principal Partners confirmed so far are Aberdeen Harbour Board, Accenture, Chevron, RGU Aberdeen Business School, PSN, KCA Deutag, Food Standards Agency Scotland and Scottish Enterprise. Associates are AMEC, Highland Spring and Marcliffe.

Since becoming vice chairman of Chevron Corporation on January 1 2002, Peter Robertson has had a wide variety of responsibilities including direction of the company's worldwide exploration, production and global gas businesses. He collaborates closely with the chairman in overseeing the strategies and operations of the company.
